Selling Points:

How to remove emotional blinders and accurately read dishonest and dangerous people among us, from a Southern California district attorney who specializes in spotting and prosecuting predators

Description:

We all need emotional blinders: the etiquette that keeps society smoothly moving depends on it. But when you absolutely must rely on another person, you have to be able to assess them objectively. RED FLAGS shares simple strategies anyone can use to spot deceptive or downright dangerous people who use ingratiation and social convention to draw in and lull victims. Readers will learn how even the most sceptical of us use rose-coloured lenses on those around us, in three sections:

- Blinded by Desire— from the alluring lenses of attraction and positive attention to the blindness of marital "bliss" and the distorted lens of delusion
 - Overlooking Red Flags in a Professional Setting— how reassuring proximity and the false security of credibility and similarity can lead to costly mistakes
 - Be Afraid of What You Can't See— the ultimate cost of wearing emotional blinders around the truly disturbed/criminal, from sexual predation to domestic abuse, stalking and cyberstalking
- Readers will learn how to:

- avoid selective attention
- observe people over time (bad guys rely on first impressions)

3ask questions: most people's favourite topic is themselves

- cyber sleuth to verify information and track down inconsistencies
- You need this book if you:
 - want to know if a potential boyfriend is trustworthy
